

Ballarat, Bendigo & Echuca Excursion

It was wonderful to see everyone getting along so well during the week, making new friendships and really getting to know each other and the Nangus students. The students also learnt responsibility, tolerance, patience, respect and independence during the week. Congratulations everyone.

