

Year One

Working with Ms Dickinson

We're learning about adding and subtracting using card games, board games and computer activities.

In English we have been doing lots of reading and writing - playing games, ordering words and pictures, saying lots of words!

